The Mission XI Million Football Festival reached the city with Indian legend Bhaichung Bhutia enthraling the crowd and the youngsters with some deft moves on the ground in a city stadium. Organised as a precursor to the under-17 World Cup in October, the festival aims to bring at least 11 million children in contact with the beautiful game. Along with Bhutia, state sports minister Rajendra Trivedi, AIFF president Praful Patel and actor Hrithik Roshan were also present on the occasion
